THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1. 1737.

4. 682.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

A Courier arriv'd at Vienna from the Prince of Saxe-Hilburghausen, in his Camp at Machiza, near the Frontier of Bosnia, there's Advice that the Turkish Troops in that Province had been re-inforced to the Number of 50,000 Men, and were divided into several Bodies, the most considerable of which was posted on the Banks of the Verbaas, in Order to prevent the Imperialists from passing that River. Prince Charles of Sarrain is troubled with a Dysentery, a Distemper very common in that Country, because of the Badness of their River-Water.

A Relation at large is published at Petersburg, of the Siege and Conquest of Oczakow, of which the following is the most material Part.

On the Festival of St. Peter and St. Paul, which was June 29, O. S. the Day that the Count de Munich approached within Cannon-shot of the Town, the Turks, to the Number of 5000 Men, of the best Troops, continually harassed the Hussars and Cossacks, who were his Van-Guard, but were put to Flight with considerable Loss. One of the Prisoners then taken reported, that a Reinforcement of 7000 Pick'd Men arrived the Day before from Bender; that the Garison consisted of 20,000 Men, and was provided with all Necessaries.

Next Day the Place was entirely invested on the Land-side, and the Enemy were obliged to retire under the Cannon.

On the 1st of July the advanced Troops on both Sides had a very bloody Engagement: The whole Army was at the same Time under Arms, and half of every Regiment being sent forward, the Attack was made in several Places, and the Fire both from the Small-Arms and Artillery was very hot on both Sides. The Russians drove the Turks from all their Gardens, Lines, and Intrenchments, which they disputed Inch by Inch; so that before Night they were pushed behind their Palisadoes, and the Beliegers were posted within Musket-shot of the Place. The Loss of the Turks that Day was considerable, because the Russians, especially the Cossacks, gave no Quarter. During the Attack, which lasted from Morning till Night, all the Artillery was continually playing, tho' no Battery nor Platform had been erected, but all the Cannon and Mortars were discharged from the open Country, and drawn nearer to the Place, as the Russians advanced; who played so successfully on the Town, that they set it on Fire in several Places, but the Enemy put it out.

Next Morning at Day-break the greatest Part of the Town seemed to be in Flames, the Artillery having continued playing all Night; and to increase the Consternation the Generals ordered the Fire to be doubled: At which Time too half of the Army which was under Arms, advanced towards the Place, with Drums beating, and Colours flying, as if they immediately intended a General Storm, in Order to draw all the Garison to them, and to hinder them from extinguishing the Fire, which succeeded accordingly; for soon after, two Magazines of Gunpowder blew up into the Air.

The Russians having taken Post at the Foot of the Counterscarp, notwithstanding the Fire of the Enemy, attacked the Counterscarp very warmly; which was obstinately defended by the Turks; who sheltering themselves behind Palisadoes, fortified at proper Distances by little Gabions, disputed every Inch of Ground. But all on a sudden the Garison was struck with such a Consternation, that several Thousand Turks went out of the Town, hoping to get off by the Black Sea, upon which Troops were immediately sent with Artillery, to cut them off; and about 10 in the Forenoon the Turks put out the White Flag, and sent to Count Munich, to desire a Suspension of Arms for 24 Hours; but the same was refused, and the Garison surrendered Prisoners at Discretion, only desiring their Lives.

Thus was a Fortress taken, defended by a whole Army, and that with Sword in Hand, in less than 3 Days Attack, and in a Manner scarce to be paralleled. The Prisoners affirmed, that on this very Day, from 5 o'Clock in the Morning, when the Attack began, to 10 in the Forenoon, above 10,000 Men of the Garison were killed by the Fire of the Muscovite Artillery, Small-Arms, and Grenadoes, and by the Magazines that blew up into the Air; so that dead Bodies and Horses kill'd, lay in Heaps in the Street, and in the Counterscarp.

The 4th being observed in the Camp as a Day of Thanksgiving, for a Conquest so much to the Glory of the Czarina's Arms, and to beseech God to continue his Blessing upon the Arms of her Imperial Majesty and of her Allies, there was a Discharge of 101 Pieces of Cannon upon that Occasion, and a triple Salvo of all the Small-Arms.

The Prisoners of Note taken are, a Seraskier Bashas with 3 Tails, Son-in-Law to the last Grand Vizier, Mustapha Bashas, the Commandant at Oczakow, and Bashas with 2 Tails, Asman Bey, General of the 3000 Bosniakes that came from Bender, 12 of the Seraskier's principal Officers, and 5 belonging to the Bashas of Oczakow; besides 56 Officers of the Bosniakes, Spahis, Janisaries, and Arnauts, 3174 Soldiers, 200 Domesticks, and 1200 Women and Children. The Number of the Dead and Bury'd, to the 9th of July inclusive, amounts to above 17,000, exclusive of those who were drowned in the Sea, or bury'd under the Ruins of the Magazines that blew up into the Air. Among the Dead are 5 Bashas with 2 Tails.

On the Russian Side were killed 2 Captains, and 43 Inferior Officers and Soldiers, of the Empress's Guards; and of the other Troops, 1 Colonel, 2 Lieutenant-Colonels, 2 Majors, 30 Officers, and 975 Inferior Officers and Soldiers: The Wounded were 2 Lieutenant-Generals, 3 Major-Generals, 2 Brigadiers, 6 Colonels, 2 Lieut. Colonels, 19 Majors, 63 Officers, and 2900 Inferior Officers and Soldiers. Count Munich and the Prince of Brunswick had each a Horse kill'd under him, and their Hats and Coats were shot thro' with several Balls. A Page was also killed by the Prince's Side.

There were found in the Town 82 Brass Cannon, 4 of Iron, 7 Mortars, and the Arms of all the Garison, among which are magnificent Sabres, and several thousand Horses, richly caparison'd. In short, there's a very considerable Booty, in Gold, Silver, and Precious Stones; besides the several thousands of Black Cattle, Sheep, &c.

Letters from Francfort say, that last Thursday Se'nnight Damian Hugo, the Cardinal de Schonborn, Bishop of Spire, died in his Diocese.

And those from Copenhagen mention the Death of the Count de Holsten, Great Chancellor of the King of Denmark, aged 77.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Gloucester, Aug. 27. Yesterday the 4 following Malefactors were executed here, viz Abraham Wood and John Wood, two Gypsies, for robbing Henry Lovel, on the Seven Downs in this County, of 40 s. in Silver, and 16 d. in Brass. They both deny'd the Fact. John Willis, for breaking open the Houses of Matth. Davis, Stay-maker, and Wm. Ellery, Innholder, both of the Parish of St. Philip and Jacob, and stealing from thence divers valuable Goods, particularly from the latter, one Silver Tankard, three Silver Spoons, &c. The Night before his Execution he confess'd to the Prosecutor where the Tankard was concealed. He was about 23 Years of Age, and born of honest Parents in this County. John Gibbs, for breaking open two Houses near Bristol, and stealing divers Goods. He declar'd to the last, that he found the Things in a Bag, in a Hedge in Kingswood, between Bristol and Bath. He was about 60 Years of Age, born in Glamorganshire, and was well known among the Smiths and Farriers of this County and Wilts.

Thomas Ricketts, who was to have suffered with the four unhappy Persons above mention'd, for breaking open a House near this City, obtained a Reprieve on account of his Youth, and its being the first Fact, into which he was drawn by his Brother, a young Man that had lived in several Noble Families, and acquired the Accomplishments of Drinking and Whoring; but 'tis hoped the narrow Escape the Prisoner met with will induce him to refrain from his evil Course of Life.

L O N D O N

A Private Letter by the last Mail from Vienna says, 'tis affirmed there that the Grand Vizier has been deposed, and that the Porte has appointed the Basha of Bosnia to succeed him; that the Trenches before Widdin were opened the 4th ult, and the Turks make frequent sallies on the Besiegers, commanded by the Count de Khevenhuller, but without Success; that Prince Charles of Lorain is march'd to reinforce the Count with 8 Battalions, and a Part of the Artillery: That a violent Hurricane lately happened at Belgrade, by which a Barge laden with 36,000 Grenadoes for the Grand Army, had the Misfortune to be cast away.

Extract of a Letter from on board the Princess Louisa, Capt. Pinnel, dated April 7, 1737. from the Cape of Good Hope.

After a very good Passage of 11 Weeks from Plymouth, we arrived March 23 at this Place, where we now lie. The Wilmington, Capt. Massey, sailed from hence two Days before we arrived. The Grafton, Capt. Prince, arrived here two Days before us, and is sailed for Bombay. The Royal Guardian, Capt. Hoadley, we spoke with 7 Days before our Arrival here, whom we expected was nearly arrived at Bengall, told us, that all the Time we were at Plymouth, he was beating in the Bay of Biscay, and was six Weeks, off and on, before he got to the Latitude of 35°. He met with very hard Gales of Wind, and never saw any of the Ships we came out with. We kept Company with the Montague, Capt. Seal, all the Way to this Place, who would not put in here. We saw Capt. Martin of the Harrison, and Capt. Gossin of the Sussex, just after we had crossed the Equinoctial Line; but being better Sailors, would not keep us Company.
